

Tenson RACE

Signature

“The Race collection is simply workwear at it’s best, designed for the most technical and professional skiers such as ski teachers and ski clubs who want to hit the slopes with an uncompromising, comfortable and durable high performance product throughout the entire season.”

Christian Mayer

Olympic bronze medalist
Lillehammer 1994 and Nagano 1998.

CHRISTIAN MAYER

Born in Villach, Carinthia on January 10, 1972. Christian joined to the junior squad of the Austrian Ski Federation in 1987 and rose a year later in the European Cup squad. After initial successes in this Series, the graduate of the Skihandelschule Schladming was included in the World Cup Team in 1990. In April 1991, Mayer won at the Junior World Championships in Norway, silver in Super G and bronze in the Combination. In winter 1991/1992 he reached his first top 10 finishes in the World Cup and was also qualified for the Olympic Winter Games in Albertville, where he finished twelfth in the Giant Slalom. He was Austrian Champion in Giant Slalom and Combined in 1992. On 13 December 1993, he won the famous Val d’isere trophy, his first World Cup race.

In 1999 the World Championship was held in Vail/Beaver Creek he won two Olympic Medals and then his first World Championship Medal, with the third Place in the Slalom – just two hundredths of a Second behind second-placed Lasse Kjus.

Since 2016 Christian Mayer is a dedicated colleague at Swedish ski- and outdoor brand Tenson, where he holds the position of Country Manager for Austria, Südtirol and Switzerland. He’s also a part of Tenson Ski Apparel development Team, where the Race Collection is at the very pinnacle.

Tenson RACE

Developed in close co-operation with alpine legend and fellow Tenson colleague Christian Mayer. Powered with MPC Extreme WP 20.000 / MP 20.000 the Race collection is Ski Workwear 365, period.
